

Dear Diary,

Today I got up at four am. After I had packed the last stuff, my mother drove me to the cemetery parking lot, where our journey to Turkey started.

There I met the other girls Lisann, Tania, Johanna and Laura and the teachers Miss Koch and Miss Ekici. In a mini car and mini bus we were driven to the airport. Having arrived at the airport we checked in our luggage and received the names of our exchange students. At 7:45 am the first plane from Frankfurt to Istanbul took off. It took us three hours and a bit until we landed in Istanbul. There we met the other groups from Poland, Belgium and Bulgaria. In Istanbul we had a little stay before the next flight to Adana, our destination, took off. Finally we reached Adana where we were greeted warmly and driven to the school. There we first met our exchange students. After we had refreshed ourselves with typical Turkish food, we went in the host families. Even there we were warmly welcomed. Meanwhile it is eleven pm and after having had a drink in the city I just want to go to bed now. I'm really looking forward to the next days.
