

Dear diary,

on our last day of the Comenius week we met with the German group and the teachers at ten o'clock am at the hotel next to the school. Before this meeting I had had lunch at my Turkish partner's home. Together with a friend of his we went to the hotel. Then we started with the German group and some Turkish girls our trip through the city. We visited some nice shops for jewellery, clothes and spices. In the afternoon we met our teachers and some Turkish guys at a restaurant and ate kebab. It was very funny and we had a lot of fun on our last day.

After that we walked to the hotel again and got our luggage. We had to say goodbye to the Turkish people and they stayed until we left the school by bus. We checked in at the airport in Adana and flew to Istanbul. At the airport in Istanbul we were in a little hurry and got directly to our gate. We had a very comfortable plane during our flight to Frankfurt, which lasted three hours. A taxi picked us up at the airport and we arrived in Weilburg at 11 o'clock pm. Our families welcomed us warmly and we said goodbye to the German group and our teachers. It was a great week with a lot of fun and new experiences.
