

Waterways in Europe: Opportunity or danger?

Evaluation questionnaire - Work in groups

Please answer to this questionnaire after a consensus in your group, that should be composed with people from, at least, three different nationalities. Try to be critical and constructive: our goal is to improve this project.

Only one questionnaire per group should be filled.

1. Has communication through eTwinning been fluent? If not, how should it be improved?

Three of the five groups say that “communication has been fluent”. 1 of them affirms that “it's better to talk by Facebook” because it has chat and you can see photos”. One of the groups adds “we've spoken a lot all together and before people arrived at Spain we had got a good friendship”. One of the groups says as far as eTwinning is concerned “it doesn't have any privacy because it hasn't got any chat”.

2. Were the assignments of the tasks during the project affordable?

Three of the five groups say “yes, it was”. One of the groups adds: “all the activities were great and we had a lot of fun all together because we are good friends”.

One of the groups affirms “We need more free time”. Another group comment “Maybe groups were too big to work good, and we speak and stayed together more time and better in excursions like Madrid or Manzanares”.

3. Have activities helped you to have an adequate relationship with members of other teams?

In general, they say “yes”. One of the groups thinks “much better activities out of school”. Two other groups say that activities have helped “because we worked in groups of different nationalities”.

4. Have your English skills been improved? If yes, how?

All the groups say their English has improved or at least they have practised a lot. The reasons and the comments are: “we were all the day speaking English”, “we have fun and we've learnt a lot of vocabulary of English”, “we were able to speak English more fluent because of talking to each other”.

5. Ideas for the next meeting. What do you want to do?

All the groups underline the fact that they would like to have more “free time”, “less museums”, “funny activities”, “include the weekend in the visit” or more time “with the host families”. Only one suggests “presentations in smaller groups”

6. How did you feel speaking to an audience? Was it a positive or a negative experience?

Two of the groups say "we felt nervous, uncomfortable. It was difficult to speak to a lot of people" or "It is easier to speak to an audience that you know". The rest of the groups affirm that it was "good" or a positive experience because people were "sympathetic". One of the groups underlines the fact that it was the first time they talked to an audience.
