

Friday

On our last day in Sofia we met in school at nine am in order to say good-bye to the Bulgarian, Belgian and Spanish teams. The Turkish and Polish teams had already left Sofia early in the morning. This took about two hours and ended tearful. Then we were driven to the Sofia Airport and stopped at our teachers' hotel, where our teachers got their baggage and we all were able to swop money in a nearby bank. As our flight left at two o'clock pm local time we did not have to wait long at the airport until we entered our plane and left Sofia. Although it was strange for us in Sofia at the beginning of the week on Friday we would have enjoyed staying there a few more days. Our plane landed at three o'clock pm local time in Frankfurt am Main. From there we took a taxi back to Weilburg, where our interesting journey ended.
